

THE KINSMAN

A monthly publication for the family for the fostering of good will among its members; for the recognition of family and individual responsibility for each other; for honoring a noble lineage and a little chat chat.

Published at Mesa Arizona November 11, 1959
45 South Olive Drive Natalia S. Farr and Family Editors
Yearly Subscription price-- $2.00

A LOCK---AHEAD --- 0---GRAM
TO
2 December 1959

HONORING OUR NOBLE FATHER---NOBLE GRANDFATHER---NOBLE GREAT GRANDFATHER BY CHOICE AT THE END OF YOUR CHOICE, TO HONOR HIM ON THE OCCASION OF HIS BIRTHDAY IN MESA, ARIZONA, DECEMBER 15, 1959. DURING SERVICE TO SCOUTS, WAS OF THE GREAT PRINCIPLE FOR WHICH HE DIED IN HIS LIFE.
TH, JESSIE S. SMITH FAMILY ASSOCIATION

We pause on this Veteran's day to pay tribute to our brave boys who fought to make the world a safer place for us to live in, and the ones who made the supreme sacrifice.

- Pvt. LEMI MARSON S 1st October 28, 1911, Somewhere in France
- Lt. ALAN S 1st Lt. U.S. Army, 19, 1941 Camp Walters Texas
- Lt. ALBERT VANCE S 1st April 29, 1940 V B Co., in Italy
- Pvt. HAROLD GRANT SPOFFORD Oct. 15, 1944 Germany
- Cpl. ASHLEY DEAN FARR October 4, 1944 Luxembourg
- Pvt. WALTER W. BUSHMAN 1951 Korean War.

We also pause with thankfulness in our hearts for the lives of our three kinsmen that have been spared to us.

Pat Spaullock, who was seriously injured in a car accident near Holbrook he was in St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix for two months under treatment while his mother Georganna remained faithfully by his side. Last week he was released to go home. His jaw is still in braces but he is improving a little every day.

Mildred Jarvis, who was in a Car accident on Country Club Drive in Mesa. She is now at the home of her son Royer Jarvis in Salt Lake City. Joe went to Provo to attend a Home Coming of all B. S. U. Student body Presidents An Organization of which Arizona has furnished a goodly number.

Forgoing is a poem to MILDRED by our beloved Post Bertha A. Kleiman

There's Queens of the Caspus,
And queens of the Fair
Teare's queen of the day
To be found everywhere
There's queens who compete
In their bathing revues,
And queens of renown
Who are found in who's who

But give me the queen
Who seeks no such debut,
Whos kingdom is none
For that monarch is you
That family of yours
Is a realm of its own
With talent and culture
Impaired and known
Who lead and excel
Be it home or afar
Distinction awards them
Wherever they are

You still remain youthful
And keep on the go
To measure the pace
With the children and Jo
No wonder we love you
The young and the old
For how you befriend us
Can never be told .

You pick up the aged
The others forget
To party and feet them
And honor them yet
with picnics and suppers
And barbecue treat
What neighborly welcome
What friendly retreat

And now you are ill and
And what words can express
The prayers that ascend
To relieve your distress

MILDRED Continued-----

We need you, we love you
Wherever ~~we~~ roam
There's only one Mildred
Get well and come home

With love and heartfelt wishes
for your speedy recovery
Bertha A. Klienman
September 1959

-----**-----

Helen Smith Howard, who has recently undergone a very serious operation at Mayores Clinic at Rochester Minn. Helen is improving now after being in a state of coma for 30 days. We are so grateful at this Thanksgiving time for the blessings of our Heavenly Father to those three members of our large family as well as other unmentioned blessings to all of us every day of our lives.

Aunt Sarah Smith was taken to a rest home in Winslow where she is receiving good care and is happy and in a lovely place.
Her address PRAIRIE HAVEN REST HOME

121 East Gilmore
Winslow, Arizona

We wish you a Happy Thanksgiving and all the Kinman will go into better and more capable hands. It is my sincere wish that we will always support this family paper and thus keep our family ties close and perpetual as noble as possible.
God bless all of you

Aunt Tal.

NEWS FROM PROVO
By Sadie Avery

We are glad to have the Broadbent family back in Provo after a year spent in New York. While there Smith worked with the Sherrill Corporation a pharmaceutical organization as a group leader in research on heart diseases. Smith will resume his position on the staff in the Pharmacy department.

Robert J. Smith has been sustained Bishop of the 25th ward in the BYU Stake. This makes three of our cousins who are at the present time bishops of wards in Provo. The other two are Elmer Rogers and Morris Bushman.

Clenavieve Docker Wood of the old Faculty left recently for a year in Iran where she will teach in a University there. Her two young sons Michael and Steven accompanied her.

Three new babies have joined the families of our Provo cousins in recent weeks. A girl was born to Morris and Lois Bushman on July 27th she is their 5th child and was named Dian Evelyn.

Oliver and Barbara, a boy born Sept. 7 bringing their total to 3 children. And to Dr. W.L. and Ruth Dell Evans a boy, born Sept. 10th. Congratulations.

Miss Joyce Avery spent two weeks during the summer in Provo visiting with her two granddaughters and other relatives. Joyce is the daughter of Chad and Virginia Avery of Phoenix.

Dean Bushman was one of the BYU GRADUATES IN August. His parents with his brother and his sister Lenore and her husband and children came from Arizona for the occasion. While here the Bushmans attended an open house in honor of Virgil and Ruth Bushman on their golden wedding day.

Robert C. Rogers spent a few days in Snowflake with his mother and aunt. The Spencer Rogers family visited briefly in Provo as guests of Job and Venice.

Francis L. Smith and his wife Florence were guests of the Mr. Smith family in Heber for a few days. They were enroute to attend a convention in Colorado. We have added to learn of the passing of our beloved kin on Marion Rogers. The Provo folks join in sending sympathy to aunt Lenora and family.

Editor apology: we neglected to tell of the graduation of Noel Spain, son-in-law of Sadie. He should have been named along with the others.

Showlow Arizona

Dear Aunt Natskia:
I should like to subscribe for the Kinman for a year and I understand that you are the one to apply to. Thanking you in advance.
Joseph F. Shunaway

Thanks Joe, Glad to hear from you.

Recently Uncle George and Aunt Phocia took a vacation to visit their daughter Corlie and family in California.

A number of our Kinman went deer hunting. we do not have their names.

Snowflake News By Edna Papa
 We the Kinsmen of Snowflake extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved at the sad passing of our uncle Marion Rogers whose untimely death resulted from an automobile accident which happened earlier in the summer. All his children were present at the funeral services which was also held at the home of his relatives and friends. Aunt Laura remained for awhile in Snowflake with her daughter Mrs. E. Erickson and family. Sweetie, her home in Mesa.
 Fern and Lawrence Smith gave a lovely show in connection with their daughter Cora and Richard Neil Heywood who were married in September in the Arizona Temple. Deanna Dory, grand-daughter of aunt Sarah Smith is our home teacher at Snowflake High School. Her mother will be remembered as Pearl Smith.

Ernest and Irene Flake entertained in honor of their daughter Leona (one of the twins) who was married in the Arizona Temple early in September. Snowflake High School was well attended last week by many kinsmen from every ward in the state. Mrs. J. J. Smith, president of the Snowflake Chapter of the Arizona Temple, has returned to Mesa for the winter to work in the People's Temple. Mrs. J. J. Smith and her family who are missionaries in the Southwest Indian Mission have been assigned to the Arizona Temple. Aunt Nell Smith has become famous for her splendid baby quilts, among her other many talents. She was demonstrating at Arizona Temple one day this week.

THE KINSMAN
 Published by the Kinsmen of Snowflake Association
 NATALIA S. PARK Editor
 45 South Olive Drive
 Mesa, Arizona.

Bulk Rate
 U.S. POSTAGE
 PAID
 Permit No. 92
 Mesa, Ariz.
 Non Profit Org.

72